

EARLY DISMISSALS

School Initiated Early Dismissals

There are a variety of reasons for early dismissal from school. School initiated early dismissals must conform with Ministry and district guidelines. In special or emergency related situations, only the school principal or his designate can dismiss school before the indicated time. Teachers do not have the authority under the School Act to dismiss students early. The currently established early dismissals can be found in the school calendar link on our Web Page